

National Kitten Coalition Privacy Policy

Effective January 1, 2016

The National Kitten Coalition has created the following privacy policy to inform you about the ways in which we collect, protect and use your personal information obtained from our website. We reserve the right at any time and without notice to make changes to this policy simply by posting such changes on our website. Any such change will be effective immediately upon posting.

National Kitten Coalition does not collect any information from you without your knowledge and permission. Information you provide to National Kitten Coalition is stored in a secure location and is accessible only by designated staff. Do not provide personal information to National Kitten Coalition if you do not agree with the policy below.

Communications from National Kitten Coalition If you have opted to receive any of our publications by email, you are able at any time to unsubscribe by contacting National Kitten Coalition at info@kittencoalition.org.

When you provide National Kitten Coalition with your email address and mailing address, we may contact you to ask you to become a supporter of National Kitten Coalition or send you the latest edition of our newsletters. You can choose not to receive such materials by contacting us at info@kittencoalition.org.

Secure Transactions When you donate to National Kitten Coalition, your personal information is encrypted and transmitted via a secure connection. The National Kitten Coalition uses PayPal.

Correct/Update Personal Information and Choice/Opt-Out Our site provides users with the opportunity to change and modify information previously provided and to opt-out of receiving communications from us at the bottom of every email. Alternatively if you wish to remove your information from our database or to not receive future communications, you can email us at info@kittencoalition.org.

Links to Third-Party Websites Through our website, you may connect to third parties' websites. We are not responsible for the collection, use, maintenance, sharing, or disclosure of data and information by such third parties. We encourage our users to be aware of the varied privacy policies of websites that they visit.

Cookies Our Site may use cookies to enhance your experience while using our website. Cookies are pieces of information that some websites transfer to the computer that is browsing that website and are used for record-keeping purposes at many websites. Use of cookies makes web-surfing easier by performing certain functions such as saving your passwords, your personal preferences regarding your use of the particular website and to make sure you don't see the same ad repeatedly. Many consider the use of cookies to be an industry standard.

Your browser is probably set to accept cookies. However, if you would prefer not to receive cookies, you can alter the configuration of your browser to refuse cookies. If you choose to have your browser refuse cookies, it is possible that some areas of our Site will not function properly when you view them.

Required Disclosures of Data and Information Regardless of anything in this policy to the contrary, we may disclose personally identifiable information, with or without prior notice to you, when we believe that the law requires it, in response to subpoenas or at the demand of governmental agencies, to protect National Kitten Coalition, to protect other visitors to the website, or to respond to an emergency.

Contacting the Website If you have any questions about this privacy statement, the practices of this site, or your dealings with this website, you can contact info@kittencoalition.org.